JB - Participant and Prolific Writer

We Had Lunch, We Went Shooting, We Had Fun!

By JB - Participant in Above Group

DISCLAIMER

(The purpose of this article is simply to inform the general membership of SCHRA that the event referenced above was not a club sponsored event nor did it appear as such in any previous club communications. Anyone who attends the monthly meeting or participates in club rides would have known that this was nothing more than an informal gathering of friends who like to shoot.)

For starters, several people agreed to get together for lunch on Thursday, March 7 at Van Nuys' famous eatery, Dr. Hogly-Wogly's Tyler Texas BBQ. Let it be known that said doctor is not a doctor but simply a guy who probably just used to hang out at a local drug store when he was a kid. Nor is his name really Hogly-Wogly. In point of fact, he was a grocery worker at a Piggly-Wiggly Market where he was nick-named "Hogly-Wogly." Also, I don't believe he's ever been to Tyler Texas.

This little hole-in-the-wall BBQ is located on Sepulveda near Roscoe and is likely the best-known BBQ joint in the Valley. Among the dozen folks who met us for lunch, I spotted quite a few with giant pork-ribs piled high on their plates and had excess BBQ sauce spots on their faces. I personally chose a BBQ brisket sandwich served with BBQ-style beans. Holy flatulence, what a meal!

Around 1:30 we left Pacoima and headed to Lakeview Terrace for the short ride up Little Tujunga Canyon to the Angeles Shooting Ranges. Thursday is a particularly good choice for this venue because the normal charge per person of $13.00 is always half price on Thursday. By the time we were set up at the pistol range our ranks had grown to approximately 16 friends - all of whom were coincidentally members of SCHRA.

For the next hour or so we fired our weapons at the various permanent targets spread out on the range. Others used paper targets to help increase their skill at close-up shooting. Aside from the sound of lead hitting the permanent metal targets, or the destruction of the paper targets, nobody was reported as having been shot or shot at.

Anyway, that's my story and I'm sticking to it. It is quite likely that sometime later in the year that we may want to revisit the shooting range again in an effort to improve our skills. Anybody who wants to shoot is welcome to join us. If you don't own any firearms it doesn't matter because several folks always bring extras guns when visiting the shooting range.

Well, I think we've covered just about everything except for the list of names of those who participated, so here they are: Fred R., Bob T., Jerry S., Richard S., Randy R., Mitch P., Lou P., David M., Ron L., Ruthann L., Mike L., Jack L., Glenn J., Jeff G., Fifi, and me.

Ed Note: Lou P. did was unable to attend the shooting portion of the trip as it was the first Thursday of the month - lingerie shopping day!

Helmet SunBlocker

Don't you just love heading out on your motorcycle, early in the morning, heading East, directly into the rising sun. Well summer is here and especially in Southern California we have a lot of those clear skies and really sunny days. Those of you who wear helmets with face shields, know that when you are looking directly into the sunlight, those smoke tinted shields just do not block out enough of the glare to actually allow you to see where you are going. And if you go to a very dark shield or darker sunglasses, you lose a lot of traffic detail when you turn away from the sun.

SunBlocker Strip

Originally developed for aviation (interesting that these inventions are always developed either for aviation or the military) the SunBlocker is a translucent, tinted, narrow plasticized-polymer film which adheres to the very upper portion of the inside of your face shield via static electrical charges like a decal. It is easy to install applying a small amount of soapy water then just slide into place, and it is removable and transferable to other helmets.

Since it sits at the very top of the face shield, above your line of sight, it doesn't get in the way of your normal visual area. Most of the time as you turn into the sun, which is normally high in the sky, you don't even notice that the strip is blocking the rays. As the sun sets just drop your head a short distance so that you block the glare but can still see through it.

I have used this device on all my helmets and would not ride without one. It is universal and works with almost any type of face shield. Why put up with the proverbial "riding into the sunset" blinded and wondering where you are going or worse where you will wind up. Do you really enjoy riding with one hand blocking the sun's glare or squinting to a point where you can hardly make out the road. Think safety here!

Try this strip, you'll love it!

JB's Excellent Adventure Exploring CA's Trinity Alps

"Hey Timmy; we're going to Happy Camp. Let's get some beef jerky"

Among other things, what I recall the most were the beef-jerky signs which all seemed to point to the quaint hamlet of Happy Camp; also home of the would-be big-foot.

But we were there to raft the Klamath River, not to chew old beef sticks laden with nitrates. So here we are at the put-in point on the river and looking forward to the next 7 days of bliss, punctuated by moments of stark terror in the rapids. This is my memory of Shasta-Trinity National Forest, just a short 35-years ago.

But our 2013 trip will offer much more than just a river and trees and beef jerky:

Day (1) will be transition day from the heat of Southern CA to the heat of Northern CA. We'll spend the night at the historic Jeffrey Hotel in beautiful downtown Coulterville. The early-birds will get the rooms with the private baths. The others, not so much. Maybe just a short jump across the hall or down the hall, whatever.

Day (2) will take us through the region of the CA Gold Country, with a planned lunch stop somewhere around Sacramento; maybe my favorite place - Fat City, in Old Town. In the afternoon we resort to the freeway to get us up to Red Bluff. What can you say about Red Bluff that hasn't been said before? I dunno, never been there! Overnight at the BW (Best Western).

Day (3) begins the adventure in the mountains. We'll head west and then north to a wide-spot in the road called Weaverville; probably for lunch. Then we will proceed north through the magnificent forest, all the way to Yreka (pron. why-reeka). How about another BW? Here's another place I've only passed while driving to Oregon.

Day (4) we'll follow the Klamath River as it winds its way through the heart of Big-Foot Country and also pass through Happy Camp for those who need a chew. Lunch will be wherever we can find it, possibly in Happy Camp or maybe not in Happy Camp. I dunno. We're spending the night in Fortuna at, yes, another BW.

Day (5) and we're heading south on Highway 101, skirting the Pacific Ocean as we go through the Big Trees. I'm thinking lunch around Willits. Then we continue south into the CA Wine Country and some gracious little but well known wine towns. Our destination for tonight is Napa. Maybe another BW? Yes, of course.

Day (6) and we're all lined up for the fast ride back home on Interstate 5. Probably Coalinga for lunch; or not. Nobody goes hungry on I-5

So there it is. Six days & five nights with the flavor of Gold Country, Big Tree Country, The Forest Back-Country, and Wine Country. A total of 1600 miles, for an average daily spin of about 267 miles.

Below are the particulars for those who are ready to sign up. Remember, you can always cancel if necessary, however if you wait too long you may be disappointed. We have taken a total of six rooms per night and one of those rooms is already booked by me. When you call, just mention the date and the name Bruce.

Thursday, Aug. 1: Coulterville - Jeffrey Hotel, $112+. 209.878.0461

Friday, Aug. 2: Red Bluff - BW+ Antelope Inn, $89.99+. 530.527.8882

Saturday, Aug. 3: Yreka - BW Miner's Inn, $94.60. 530.842.4355

Sunday, Aug. 4: Fortuna - BW Country Inn, $116+. 707.725.6822

Monday, Aug. 5: Napa - BW+ Inn at the Vines, $149+. 707.257.1930

Tuesday, Aug. 6: Tonight you sleep in your own bed.

So there it is; now go get it!

Upcoming Activities

By JB - Activities Chairperson

April & May

If there's one thing you can always count on, it is that there will be changes in our Activities Calendar. Lots of changes.

For example, our Famoso Drag Races event set for March 2 was the most recent victim of bad weather. Sorry Joe-Bob.

April is not quite here as this is written but I suspect a venue-change for the April 6 Poppies & Tehachapi; but this time Joe-Bob has a secret back-up plan. But why the change you may ask? Nobody's seen any poppies yet this year and we are well in season at this point.

The next event to fall-from-grace is the Arroyo Grande Strawberry Festival scheduled for Saturday, May 25 and Sunday, May 26. Again, why, you may ask? Because we didn't realize this was also Memorial Day Weekend. Not a great time to be travelling America's Highways. Oh well.

So, what can we count on? Below is the next two months' worth of "definite may-bees."

APRIL

Saturday, April 6 - Joe-Bobs Secret Ride to??: Joe-Bob, 9:00 AM, Millies

What more can be said about a ride to?? Unfortunately, I am sworn to secrecy but I have a pretty good idea where we may go instead of the previously forecast Poppies & Tehachapi. If I told you, I'd have to kill you. Show up; you won't be sorry.

Thursday, April 11 - Monthly Club Meeting at the Pie Place

The corn chowder alone is worth the drive over; plus, you might learn something from our recently graduated students of Streetmasters.

Friday, April 12 to Tuesday, April 16 - Arizona Adventure: JB, 8:00 AM, Millies

Our first multi-day ride is a sell-out so further pimping is not required. Rest assured we'll take plenty of photos for the rest of you to drool over. Overnights in Kingman, Sedona, Jerome and Prescott, AZ.

Saturday, April 27 & Sunday, April 28 - Kernville & Kennedy Meadow: Sternz, 8:30 AM, Millies

Who will it be - Cindy or Jerry? Probably both. Kernville is one of our favorite little towns in the Southern Sierra. Just be careful where you book dinner! Kennedy Meadow has been visited by a few SCHRA folks but not lately. Here's your chance to visit a mile-high piece of paradise, usually covered in snow at this time of year. The dry winter enables us to make a visit before the summer crowds show up. Call The Kern Lodge at 760.376.2223 for accommodations on Saturday, April 27.

MAY

Sunday, May 5 - "Exciting" Fillmore: Richard, 10:00 AM, Woodlake

Well, for those of you who believe you've seen everything, let me caution you that your belief may be pre-mature. Fillmore is a wide spot in the road which we ride through on our way to someplace else, but you will be amazed at all the funky stuff Fillmore has to offer if Richard can find it. Think - honey-farm, winery, fish hatchery, antiques, quaint downtown, city hall, railroad station and authentic Mexican Food. "Exciting!"

Thursday, May 9 - Monthly Meeting at the Pie Place In addition to all the usual excitement of our monthly gathering, be sure to pick up your free copies of Friction Zone and Jewish Journal!

Friday, May 17 to Monday, May 20 - Nevada "Loneliest Road": JB, 9:00 AM, Millies

Sorry folks, we're fully subscribed. Our planned route takes us to Las Vegas for the first night, Ely for the second night, and Tonopah for the third. According to the AAA, much of our route is designated "scenic." An area that is CA-close but not frequently travelled. Pray for us.

(NOTE) For those not attending Loneliest Road (above) think about attending The Guide Dogs Poker-run and lunch ($30 includes lunch): Mike, 9:00 AM, Millies, Sunday, May 19.

(NOTE) Per the information given at the beginning of this article, the Saturday, May 25 to Sunday, May 26 ride to Arroyo Grande for the Strawberry Festival has been unceremoniously cancellatised.

This stuff is nothing to laugh at.

A man was leaving a convenience store with his morning coffee when he noticed a most unusual funeral procession approaching the nearby cemetery.

A black hearse was followed by a second black hearse about 50 feet behind the first one.

Behind the second hearse was a solitary man walking a dog on a leash. Behind him, a short distance back, were about 200 men walking single file.

The man's curiosity got the best of him so, he respectfully approached the man walking the dog and said, "I am so sorry for your loss, and this may be a bad time to disturb you, but I've never seen a funeral quite like this. Whose funeral is it?"

"My wife's."

"What happened to her?"

The man replied, "My dog attacked and killed her."

He inquired further, "But who is in the second hearse?"

The man answered, "My mother-in-law. She was trying to help my wife when the dog turned on her."

A very poignant and touching moment, of brotherhood and silence, passed between the two men.

"Can I borrow the dog?"

The man replied, "Sure, Get in line."

The children were gathered on the front pew one Sunday morning for the Children's Sermon. The minister asked, "Does anyone know what the resurrection is?"

One little boy blurted out, "I'm not quite sure but I do know that if you have a resurrection that lasts longer than four hours, you have to see a doctor."

It took about ten minutes for the congregation to settle down enough to continue with the worship service.

The Maid

The maid asked for a pay increase.

The wife was very upset about this and decided to talk to her about the raise.

She asked, "Now Maria, why do you want a pay increase?"

Maria: "Well, there are three reasons why I want an increase.

The first is that I iron better than you."

Wife: "Who said you iron better than me?"

Maria: "Your husband said so."

Wife: "Oh yeah?"

Maria: "The second reason is that I'm a better cook than you."

Wife: "Nonsense, who said you were a better cook than me?"

Maria: "Your husband did"

Wife increasingly agitated: "Oh he did, did he?"

Maria: "The third reason is that I am better at sex than you."

Wife, really boiling now and through gritted teeth asks, "And did my husband say that as well?"

Maria: "No...the gardener did."

Wife: "So, how much do you want?"

An Italian MaMa

Mrs. Ravioli comes to visit her son Anthony for dinner.

He lives with a female roommate, Maria.

During the course of the meal, his mother couldn't help but notice how pretty Anthony's roommate is.

Over the course of the evening, while watching the two interact, she started to wonder if there was more between Anthony and his roommate than met the eye.

Reading his mom's thoughts, Anthony volunteered, "I know what you must be thinking, but I assure you, Maria and I are just roommates."

About a week later, Maria came to Anthony saying, "Ever since your mother came to dinner, I've been unable to find the silver sugar bowl.

You don't suppose she took it, do you?"

"Well, I doubt it, but I'll email her, just to be sure."

So he sat down and wrote an email:

Dear MaMa,

I'm not saying that you "did" take the sugar bowl from my house ; I'm not saying that you "did not" take it.

But the fact remains that it has been missing ever since you were here for dinner.

Your Loving Son

Anthony

Several days later, Anthony received a response email from his MaMa which read:

Dear son,

I'm not saying that you "do" sleep with Maria, and I'm not saying that you "do not" sleep with her.

But the fact remains that if she was sleeping in her OWN bed, she would have found the sugar bowl by now.

Your Loving MaMa

Moral:

Never Bulla Shita you MaMa

Famoso Drag Races Route 66 Lunch Ride

Joe Gubbrud - RC

March 9th

Famoso March Meet Drag Races:

Not to break with tradition, for a 3rd year in a row this ride was canceled due to wind, rain, snow, and not the least, COLD. Maybe next year we will break our tradition !!

Route 66 "The Mother Road" Ride": ( formerly Landers/ Integratron Tour)

This was planned as a Saturday/Sunday overnight with a visit to the Integratron near Landers with dinner at Pappy and Harriet's in Pioneertown. Who knew the Integratron would be sold out months in advance!! Well, there is always next year !! After conferring with our Senior Road Captain Jerry Stern and his partner Cindy, the decision was made to make this into a day ride, and what a day it was !! This turned into a Route 66 "The Mother Road" ride !!

21 of us on 14 bikes left Millie's at 9:00 and headed up the 14 freeway. We picked up another couple on a bike along side the 14 to round out our group to 15 bikes and 23 of us. With the skies sunny, the temperature rising and winds calm we made quick work to our first stop at Charlie Brown's/McDonalds in Little Rock. After a brief break we pressed on heading for Victorville and our landmark lunch destination: Emma Jean's Holland Burger !!

Emma Jean's is located on route 66 out in the middle of nothing just north of Victorville. It is a tiny quintessential diner that has been there almost forever !! They close at 12:30 but Shawna, the owner, had assured us as long as we were there by 12:30 we would be served!! Due to the size of our group and the beautiful weather we grabbed seats at outside picnic tables. Shawna and her crew really busted their butts serving not only us but the others that had filled up the inside of the diner. Shawna not only served us well, but entertained us with her great sense of humor which really made for a dining experience like no other. With huge homemade burgers ( I loved the "Brian Burger") fries and onion rings we all got filled up and ready for the next segment of our trip.

We headed south on Route 66 for about 3 miles to the "Route 66 Museum" in Victorville. This museum has a huge collection of photos and memorable items from the heyday of "The Mother Road". We enjoyed a relaxing hour or so touring the museum and learning of the history of the infamous road.

We left the Museum and Cindy Stern took over and led us on a scenic ride towards home going through Wrightwood and taking back roads. The scenery was fantastic and really topped off a great spring ride as we headed back to whence we came.

March 23rd

Streetmasters: While not an official club ride, 4 of us attended the Streetmasters precision riding workshop on March 23rd held at Willow Springs racetrack. Friday J.B., Caroline and Joe/Bob rode up to Lancaster where we checked into the Hampton Inn. We gathered with Walt Fulton and many of his crew and other riders and headed to dinner. We had a great evening visiting with the many instructors and other riders. That night, the winds came up to nearly 80mph and it was COLD. Not to worry, however, as the next morning the sun was shining and the wind had stopped so a perfect day for riding was in order. The approximately 20 riders were up and ready to go.

Glen Jace joined us Saturday morning and we kicked off with a classroom session discussing cornering concepts and other safety techniques that we would later practice on the track. We headed up to the track where they broke us into two groups, with one group going out on the track and the other group practicing turning, stopping, weaving and other slow speed maneuvers. These two groups alternated throughout the day. Within each group we were further broke down to subgroups with no more than 4 riders per instructor.

We rode "horse thief" mile which was full of curves and built into a steep hillside. It was a really great track to work on techniques as they lead us around the track and we took turns leading each subgroup.

Walt and the crew gave us a ton if individual instruction along with fun, food and beverages. We all came away with greater skills for riding the curvy roads as well as slow speed maneuvering. The highlight for me was at the end of the day they let us run alone on the track. Doug, one of the instructors, was behind me and we opened up the throttles and let her rip!! We traded following and leading around the track as we both pushed our bikes to the limit. What a blast!!!

We are proud to be members of .....

We have been fortunate this year to have received the Angie's List SUPER SERVICE AWARD and the Greenopia DISTINGUISHED BUSINESS AWARD. Recently, we were also accepted as members of the National QUALITY PRO & QUALITY PRO GREEN program through the National Pest Management Association. The standards of acceptance are business ethics, application techniques and chemical selection that far exceed most companies not in the program.
